SOIL and Tlaxcala3 are proud to present Latin American Land/Escapes, a show of fourteen Latin American artists from all over Mexico, Chile, Perú, Colombia, Ecuador, Costa Rica, and the D.R.

Earlier this year, SOIL collaborated with Tlaxcala3, a Mexico City art space, similar in our ethos of grassroots organizing and community building through art. We initiated a cultural art exchange by hosting two shows in dialogue with one another at each other's respective spaces. Please join us and welcome Tlaxcala3 to SOIL Gallery,

I'm excited to share a recent article about the conference I participated in this past May in Santa Vittoria in Matenano, Marche, Italy. I was honored to be a speaker at the Continuing Education Course for the American Planning Association (APA), organized by our very own Mark Hinshaw, FAICP.

The article, written by Nancy Eklund, AICP, highlights the inaugural class of this unique international initiative.
